Good News for Homemakers

Small appliances make excellent gifts

By Shirley W. Walton
Extension Agent

Do you need to buy a present for someone special or someone who may be difficult to purchase for? Small appliances can be the answer to this gift problem. They make very popular gifts and are most useful. They are usually attractively designed and can be appropriate gifts for an individual or family.

This year all the traditional appliances are available in a wide selection, along with some new items. Food processors, toasters, yogurt makers, food steamers, portable ovens, coffee machines, mini-fryers, smoke detectors and air purifiers are just some of the small appliances available.

Consider the life style of the person you are buying for. For example, a student who eats in a cafeteria or has to prepare food for one in an apartment might appreciate a small coffee maker for his or her room or apartment more than a family sized deep fryer. Also, the mini-fryers and special appliances for ones and two are very nice appropriate gifts for a young couple.

A person who cooks for a large family or has a lot of guests could get more use out of a food processor than a very small toaster oven.

Buying an appliance will not change a person's life style. Instead, buy an appliance that will suit that life style rather than a appliance that is just temporarily popular and being advertised everywhere.

People also should consider the relationship between the cost and frequency of use. An item that is useful but will only be used on special occasions may not warrant a great deal of investment. Many times we purchase something because it is new on the market or it has been attractively advertised and we then let it collect dust on our counter or shelf.

If an item that you are purchasing will be used daily, you will want to spend a little more for the brand or make for better quality, durability or extra features. Shop around for the best price and consider buying locally. Many times we drive great distances to purchase something to save a few dollars when we need to look at our local offerings.

Be sure when you purchase a small appliance that it has a Use-Care Manual with it. This is most important. No matter how acquainted you are with the use of small appliances, you should read the Use-Care Manual for any new appliance as though you've never used an appliance like this before. Each appliance has its own unique qualities, features and limitations. This Use-Care Manual can help you use it to its best advantage and take care of it at the same time.

If you have a homemaking question or problem, you may call 352-8244 or write P. O. Box 488, Appomattox, VA 24522.

Have a good week!

Recipe of the Week
"It's a Snap Cheese Cake"
1 envelop unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup boiling water
2 - 8 oz. packages cream cheese, softened
1 teaspoon vanilla extract or lemon extract
9 in. pie crust

In a large bowl, mix unflavored gelatin with sugar. Add boiling water and stir until the gelatin is completely dissolved. With an electric mixer, beat in cream cheese and extract until smooth. Pour into prepared crust. Chill until firm. Garnish if desired with fresh or canned fruit. Makes about 8 servings.

Note: The following delicious variations can be made:

Chocolate Cheese Cake - Prepare as above; beat in 1/4 cup each unsweetened cocoa powder and sugar.

Lemon or Almond Cheese Cake - Substitute 1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon lemon extract and 1 teaspoon lemon rind or the same amount of almond extract and garnish with slivered almonds.

Pineapple Cheese Cake - Substitute 1 cup canned pineapple juice for the water. Use the drained pineapple (crushed) for a topping after the cheese cake has chilled until firm.

This cheese cake is lower in calories than many and is delicious. Yes, it's a snap to make this cheese cake!

Thanks

Dear Editor:

The owners, staff, parents and children at Appomattox Children's Center would like to express their sincere thanks to Perry and Sharon Wright, owners of John Mosby Inn and their partners Jim Morris and Grace Morris for the lovely Halloween party they gave at their restaurant. Not only did the Appomattox Day Care children enjoy the party, but also their friends, the Kindergarten Class at Appomattox Primary School were invited and present.

The children enjoyed the home-made cupakes, chocolate chip cookies, apples, punch and also the special bag of treats given to each of them. They were excited about participating in the costume judging contest and were proud of the prizes that some of them won. Mayor Ronald Spiggle was a great master-of-ceremonies. Helping to judge the costumes with Mayor Spiggle were Bob Jamerson and Grace Morris. The children were delighted with all three of the judges.

The children talked about the fun time they had at their special Halloween party for days following the event.

We feel fortunate to have Perry, Sharon, Jim and Grace in business in our community. Their love and interest in our little people of Appomattox is certainly evident.

Sincerely,
Patricia Gaines

We would like to thank all of the people who sponsored and parficipated in the Bowl-A-Thon that was held on Oct. 9 to help raise money for our club.

Special thanks goes to Vadie Elder, who came up with this unique idea and organized the whole thing.

We would also like to thank all of the people who donated food and their time to our chicken fry that we held on Oct. 2.

Sincerely
The Friendly Hearts Club

Support meet set

Families of patients with Alzheimer's Disease or a related disorder, friends and interested professionals will meet on November 16, at 3 p.m. in the Mansog Classroom of First Presbyterian Church, V.E.S. Road, Lynchburg. This family support group will serve Bedford, Appomattox, Amherst and Campbell counties.

Alzheimer's Disease is a progressive, irreversible brain disease for which there is as yet no known cause or treatment. Related diseases include Picks, Creutzfeld-Jakob, and others. The problems families face in dealing with the long-term care of patients with senile dementia and the emotional, financial and social stress are immense and all too often devastating. Family support groups being organized throughout the nation offer a caring situation where family members share their problems and seek solutions together.

Regularly scheduled meetings are being planned to offer up-to-date information as well as a forum for mutual help. Meetings are free and open to all families of victims of Alzheimer's Disease or a related disorder involving senile dementia.

For furter information, call Edith Law, 946-2543.

Dora S. DeJarnette

96 years celebrated

Mrs. Dora S. DeJarnette celebrated her 96th birthday on Sunday, Nov. 7 at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, David and Marion Nash, with whom she resides. Approximately 35 family members and friends were present for the dinner and day of fellowship.

Mrs. DeJarnette, the former Dora Sowell, was one of 11 children and had eight children with five living. She was married to the late Evan DeJarnette for 65 years before his death in July of 1972. She has 17 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild.

Mrs. DeJarnette followed the same strict code of conduct in rearing her own children that she knew as a child.

"In fact," she said, "My husband never kissed me until after we were married."

Vividly recalling her wedding she said, "we had a big supper after the wedding and danced all night."

After the wedding celebration was over and they were crossing the Staunton River on the ferry, her husband said, "I reckon you'll kiss me now, won't you?"

Appomattox UDC plans meeting
